

Taylor-Dodsworth.

Cards have been received in Marshall announcing the marriage of Miss Bessie Dodsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dodsworth of Newport, Kentucky to Mr. Cecil Taylor also of that city.

The wedding will occur on Wednesday, Feb. 20th, 1901. It will be a home wedding and the happy couple will leave immediately for an extended eastern trip.

Miss Dodsworth, the bride elect, is a niece of Mesdames E. R. Pemberton and H. H. Downing in this city and during her young life has spent much of her time in Marshall. We know of no young lady that has ever visited in our city who could boast of more attractions than she, very bright and interesting, and free from all affectation or silly reserve. She was one of the most original children we ever met and a delightful companion even in early youth.

Mr. Taylor is a traveling salesman, with headquarters at Newport, which will be their home in the future. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations in advance for a long and happy married life.

Eckle-Davis.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday evening, February 6, 1901, at 8 o'clock, the contracting parties being Mr. Louis Eckle, a prosperous young farmer of Lafayette county, and Miss Mattie Davis, daughter of Robert Davis, one of the oldest and most aristocratic citizens of Lexington, Mo. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, Rev. J. Given officiating.

Only the relatives and close friends attended the wedding. The bride was beautifully gowned in an elegant reception toilet in one of the pastel shades. A reception followed the wedding, which was a most enjoyable affair, and Mr. and Mrs. Eckle went to their home on Thursday, which is a fine farm one mile from Lexington.

Miss Jennie Koontz of this city, a friend of the bride, attended the wedding. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

Roberts-Kemp

Mr. James Roberts of Longwood and Miss Carrie Kemp, living five miles south of Longwood, were married on Wednesday evening, Jan. 30th, at the home of the bride, Rev. Mr. Dowdy performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed only by the family and a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts went to the home of the groom in Longwood, where a dining was given them and where they will remain for the present. The groom is employed in the store of his brother, Thomas Roberts at Longwood and is well known in Marshall.

The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

A Beautiful Tribute.

We know of nothing more appropriate than the following beautiful lines composed by Miss Mary H. McCoy of Los Angeles, California, as a tribute to her friend, the late Mrs. Martha Stephens Rolwing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Speed Stephens, who died suddenly some weeks ago, while on a visit to her parents at Boonville:

Within my garden when the day was fair
I walked, and found the loveliest floweret
there;

Its waxy petals scarcely yet unfolded,
Its whiteness to no softening touch exposed;
I plucked and carried it within my room,
And smiled to see how it dispelled the gloom.

God walked at even in this world of ours
And looked in love upon His human flowers;
"Ah, this," He said, "is fairer than the rest,"
And placed it tenderly upon His breast.

Miss Grace Orr.

Miss Grace Orr, second daughter of James Orr, died on Friday morning, Feb. 1st, at 3 o'clock at her home near Salt Springs, where she had been ill three weeks of pneumonia.

Grace was a lovely, studious girl and at the age of twelve years she passed away from earth, leaving the sweet fragrance of her young life behind her. For several years she had been a member of the Presbyterian church and was a regular attendant at Sabbath school and church services and the example of her young life will continue to live.

The bereaved family have the deep sympathy of many relatives and friends in this great bereavement. The funeral was held on Sunday at the Salt Springs church, Rev. C. C. McKinney of Malta Bend conducting the burial at Salt Springs cemetery.

James Davie

Again are we called upon to chronicle the death of one of Saline's oldest and best citizens. Mr. James Davie died at his home in Salt Springs on Friday night, Feb. 1st, 1901, at 9 o'clock, at the age of 87 years. Uncle Davie, as he was commonly called, had been in feeble health for a year or two, but for several months had been failing rapidly with heart affection. His wife having died some 8 years ago at Salt Springs, he lived with Mrs. Proctor, a very estimable lady, as housekeeper.

He was truly a good man; his integrity was without a blemish, his friendship without deceit and his honor without stain. He possessed the feelings and instincts of a true and noble man and lived the life of a christian gentleman. He was a charter member of Missouri Commandery, No. 36, Knights Templar of this city which organization officiated at his funeral.

Deceased was born in Glasgow, Scotland, coming to Canada when a young man, where he remained several years. He moved to St. Louis in 1861 and was quite an active business man there for years. He has lived in Saline county 25 years and is an uncle of Postmaster John Blair at Salt Springs.

The funeral was held on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Salt Springs Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. C. C. McKinney of Malta Bend.

The REPUBLICAN extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

The Carrie Nation Club.

Redulla Capital.

At a called meeting of the Carrie Nation club, held last night, it was unanimously decided to extend the sympathies of the members to Mrs. Nation, whose arrest and incarceration in the Topeka jail has shocked the civilized world.

It was decided that the manufacturers of Bicycle playing cards be requested to substitute the picture of Mrs. Carrie Nation for that of the queen, now used on the suit cards in violation of the aesthetic rules of the best society; and it was further ordered that the picture of the bicycle now used for a "joker" or cuter card be replaced by the representation of a hatchet or battle axe, the makers of the Battle Axe plug tobacco to be restrained from further use of the name.

On motion it was ordered that the ladies of this city be notified by publication that the charter list of the Carrie Nation club is still open, and all may become members upon proof of muscular ability to wield a hatchet.

It was ordered that the secretary furnish the club a correct list of the resorts of this city that require attention, same to be forwarded to Mrs. Nation, care of the jailer, Topeka, Kansas.

Some Verse on Mrs. Nation.

The following lines were composed by our friend, B. Forrest Orear, of this city, who is attending a dental college in Baltimore, Maryland:

Mrs. Nation, Mrs. Nation,
After much deliberation,
But without procrastination,
You have found your occupation.

And with earnest application
To this job of reformation
Without thought of compensation
You have gained a reputation.

You have shown determination
And a lot of animation,
Working for emancipation
Of this thirsty generation.

And to increase the complication
Joint sighs show desolation,
And their stock depreciation
From the very last quotation.

Their keepers view with consternation
The awful work of desecration,
And their only consolation
They can hunt a new vocation.

During your incarceration
With ample time for meditation,
You proposed continuation
Of the present agitation.

You know the combination,
You indorse the proclamation
Of this great administration
In benevolent assimilation.

B. F. OREAR.
